4. DINNER FOR 16 AT THE HISTORIC EL RANCHO ESPAÑOL DE CUYAMA

■ In 1848, Don José de la Guerra would travel by ox cart from the coast to El Rancho Español de Cuyama; it would take him 15 days for the trip. Today it’s a scenic ride just 47 miles east of Santa Maria to the Ranch. Your experience will begin with transportation to the historic Ranch to take in a beautiful evening sunset. You and your guests will be greeted with wine and appetizers as you enjoy a warm summer evening. A tour of the Ranch and the private adobe home will be led by owner Pam Doiron. As you relax overlooking the scenery, a wonderful four-course meal will be prepared for you. End the evening having experienced many of the same pleasures that the de la Guerra family enjoyed back in 1848. Date to be mutually agreed upon during the months of May through September 2018.
